With reference to my letter No.G.C.659, dated 13th September 1919, regarding the application of one Miss. Worley for the post of Matron of the Victoria Hospital, Bangalore, on the new scale of pay (Rs.150-10-250) sanctioned for the post for candidates possessing European training in Sick-nursing and midwifery, I have the honor to report that Miss. Worley has since intimated her inability to join as she has to return to England(as soon as she gets a passage for which she has applied) on account of some unforeseen family circum-stances.

Under the circumstances the Medical Officer has been requested to write and ascertain from the other applicants if any one is ~~xxxxxxxx~~ free to enter service here. In this connection I would suggest the advisability of calling for applications from European Nurses with Indian Training and experience, who, might be offered a pay of Rs.100-10-150, with the usual ration and clothing allowances, in case candidates with European training are not forthcoming.
